President-elect Donald Trump has announced his pick for surgeon general: Dr. Janette Nesheiwat, a Big Pharma shill who aligned herself with Tony Fauci and other Wuhan coronavirus (COVID-19) pushers who demanded social media censorship; called COVID injections "a gift from God;" and advocated that people wear not just one, but two triple-layered face masks to stay safe from the "virus."

In the video below, watch as Dr. Nesheiwat praises Facebook to Fox Business' "Mornings with Maria" for the social media platform's efforts to censor anti-vaccine "misinformation" during the "pandemic," adding that she will "hope and pray" for other social media companies to do the same:

Trump's COVID swamp

Back in early 2021, Dr. Nesheiwat shilled for the pharmaceutical industry and Trump's Operation Warp Speed mass vaccination effort by blasphemously calling the experimental death shots "a gift from God."

"We have many vaccines in existence that treat a variety of non-life-threatening diseases but to have a COVID vaccine, i.e., a Pfizer or Moderna mRNA that will actually save you from dying is a gift from God," she said to the media at the time.

"This is our path out of the pandemic."

Around that same time, Dr. Nesheiwat pushed heavily for Americans to mask up, though she was one of the crazies who actually advocated that people wear two masks at the same time – and not just any masks, mind you, but the triple-layered kind that doubled up prohibits proper breathing.

"Wearing two [masks] will likely give you more protection – between 15 and 20 percent," Dr. Nesheiwat said, pulling these figures out of nowhere and simply declaring them into existence.

By the looks of it based on who Trump is "hiring" to his cabinet, it is unlikely that there will ever be any real COVID accountability. Those who pushed the Operation Warp Speed death shots and other COVID paraphernalia will apparently be let off the hook and it will simply be business as usual under Trump.

"Of all Trump picks, including Matt Gaetz, she makes me the most nervous," someone tweeted on X / Twitter about Trump's choice of Dr. Nesheiwat. "Why was it not Ben Carson?"

"This is a wildly disappointing pick," lamented another.

"The only thing that makes sense is that he picked her because of her support for the vax he supported? The whole vax thing is the chink in his armor. Just own that it's horrible and move on."

To "own it," though, would mean that Trump would have to take personal responsibility for the jab genocide, which is unlikely to ever happen.

"I don't care if she has changed her views," wrote another, wishfully thinking that perhaps Trump picked Dr. Nesheiwat because she changed. "This should disqualify her from ANY position in Trump's administration."

"This is a horrible pick," wrote another. "It should have been Florida's surgeon general, Dr. Joseph Ladapo."

"There are a hundred great doctors to pick," said someone else. "Why pick a covidiot?"

Dr. Jane Hughes, MD, also chimed in to say that Dr. Nesheiwat's appointment "cannot stand."

"There are so many excellent ethical physicians who don't have her baggage-censorship and narrative adherent to the real harm of fellow citizens."
